

SARAH GLAZ

POETRY READING

Thursday, February 12, 4:00pm, UConn Co-op

University of Connecticut math
professor, Sarah Glaz
brings us a wonderful poems in time for

collection of love
Valentine's Day, Strange Attractors: Poems of Love and Mathematics. The book spans three thousand years. As the American mathematician David Eugene Smith wrote, "What, after all, is mathematics but the poetry of the mind, and what is poetry but the mathematics of the heart?" In this entertaining collection, Glaz shows the affinity of math and poetry. Glaz served on the board of Ibis Review and has published several poems and translations. She is also the author of Commutative Coherent Rings.
